

FREIGHT SERVICES LIABILITY

The single most important protection for your business

Tailored to the unique needs of freight forwarders and customs brokers

Our Freight Service Liability product is a policy that combines errors & omissions and legal liability in order to guard your company against potential pitfalls. Our easy and affordable “FSL” coverage in an essential component to any responsible risk management program.

Supply chain complexity, increased regulations, and growing shipper expectations have increased the likelihood that freight forwarders and brokers will receive claims against their alleged mistakes. In many cases the allegations are frivolous but that doesn’t stop legal fees from becoming financially crippling.
